Scrapped Content

- JellyGelly was about to appear, but knowing she did terrible things she had to get charged, having her only appear in 1 scene and the finale. That makes Ruby and Jelly co-exist, like Zobyt and Cobyt.
    - And if you like JellyGelly, you know what's happening. You will be sent to the BND Of Doom. /joke
    - If you support PuppaLina also, please remember. She was found out to be a pedo and a zoophile.
- There were going to be 12 scenes, which had the exact same plot of The Numberblocks Movie from Learninghall. But the time should be about 90 minutes.
- Thinkingblock When and some others were going to accidentally cameo in Chapter 4, which was then-called Which Way.
    - However, Thinkingblocks are dead, so they no longer exist.
        - Eventually, the show did become canon, but as a coding series instead of questions.
    - Zay was about to appear, but Cobyt officially appeared in four Legacy videos.
- Popaly’s original plot can be found here: https://learningstuff-fanon.fandom.com/wiki/Popaly
    - However, Learningstuff Fanon was dead until Alphablocksfan2009 gave Immer admin.
